These Bonds are in sums of $1,000 each, with compons attached, payable at the Merchants' Bank, in the city of New York, on the lat of each February and August.

These Bonds are issued under authority of special acts of the Legislatures of Virginia and North Carolina, and are secured by a mortgage executed to John I. Palmer, Esq., of the city of New York, in trust for the bondholders.

This mortgage covers the entire line of the road from Norfolk. Virginia, to South Gaston on the Roanoke river in North Carolina, a distance of 99 miles, which will have cost, when completed, including the original outlay, over $1,500,-000—and the trustee is empowered, in case of sixty days default in the payment of interest or principal of the bonds, to take possession of, use and sell the whole or any part of the same, including the franchises, income and property of the company of every description, now acquired or hereafter to be acquired. The connections of this road are such as to secure for it an ample amount of business; it unites at Welden with the railroad to Wilmington, 100 miles in length, which has just been re-laid with a heavy T rail; it unites at South Gaston with the railroad to Kaleich. So miles long, which is also about to be re-laid with a heavy T rail.

At South Gaston, it will receive the immense productions of the extensive and fertile valley of the Roancke, which are brought to that point by the Roancke Navigation Company, who have expended over four hundred thousand dollars in improving the navigation of the Roancke and its tributaries.

The harbor of Norfolk and Portsmouth is well known to be one of the best in the United States, and will thus be connected by the Seaboard and Roancke Railroad and its connecting flines, with an ample extent of territory; which will insure to the road an abundant business.

A map, exhibiting these connections, chowing, also, other lines now in rapid course of construction, by which a continuous line of railrusy will soon be extended from Norfolk to Mobile and New Orleans, on the south, and to the Valley of the Missiesiph, at Kemphis, on the west, may be obtained of the undersigned.
